ELE Christmas Party and Holiday Limo Light Judging

Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells- December 17, 6:30pm. We know, we know, we're not even past Thanksgiving but we want to remind all of you to circle December 17 on your calendars. This year will be the biggest ELE Holiday Family Event Ever! Not only will we have fun new entertainment for our kids, but continue our tradition of breaking bread, sharing soup and even enjoying a little holiday cheer with our neighbors (and of course enjoying Eileen Carey's cookies)! I think we can even expect a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus!

BUT WAIT, that's not all. This year the Social Committee is sponsoring a holiday light display judging contest!!!! Yes, everyone who cares to decorate will be voted on in a variety of categories by their neighbors. We'll see who has the most creative, silly, or seasonal display. During the Holiday Party on December 17, we will take groups of adults around the neighborhood in style- yes a limo at the clubhouse will take tours of 10 or so at a time to make the judging more fun and festive. Keep an eye out for ballots and more detailed information in a flier in early December.

ELE Women's Club Holiday Auction

I can't believe it is already November and we are busy as can be. Our next big event is our Holiday Auction. All ELE women are welcome as well as guests; you don't have to be a Women's Club member to attend the auction. So call your girlfriends, sisters, mother, and even your mother-in-law to attend. The premise is to get all of the women together, bring items to be auctioned off (this can be anything from hand crafted items to something you need to get rid of) and raise money for our community. Please let Julie Landry or Kathleen Valentine know if you have anything you want to donate or maybe a business owner that you know would like to contribute, too. I was able to get the owner of A Bit of My Art to donate some fabulous pottery. We welcome the chance to have you with us and look forward to greeting you at the auction on December 8th at the lovely home of Mary Hibbs, 4006 Falcon Lake.

Cheryl Eichenauer - Women's Club President

Directory Updates and Advertisements

Thank you to all of the block reps who are updating the information for our ELE Directory and thanks to each of you who have approved your family information in a timely manner! Getting all of the information approved is a real task and it takes everyone working together to make our ELE Directory as accurate as possible!

There is still time for you to place an ad for your business or service and help support the directory. The cover ads are confirmed, but there is plenty of room inside for your advertisement. Our advertisers have all been "neighbor-approved". If you are looking for a painter, realtor, attorney, landscape designer, etc., the ads in our directory represent our neighbors and companies approved by our neighbors. Place your ad today – contact Martha Rew for more details (817-572-9538 or rrew3@aol.com).

Ad Prices:

Business card	$ 30	Half Page	$100
Double card	$ 50	Full Page	$150

Halloween 2004 was "Spook"tacular!

This year's Halloween party saw the largest attendance of the past few years. I trust all of your ghouls and goblins had a great time! A special thank you to Dwain and Jan Brown, and Laurie James who put in hours of work to make our "Haunted Trail" a hit and our clubhouse festive and fun. And as always thanks to all of you who brought goodies and helped in the set up and clean up of the event.

Finally A big THANK YOU to our ELE "Youth in Service" for their assistance. Their help really makes it more fun for the younger kids. Halloween high five goes to: Jenna Anderson, Blake and Anna Brown, Wesley Cox, Paige Decker, Emily Ennis, Christian Hibbs, Kathleen Jordan, and Ana and John Valentine! These GREAT ELE volunteers helped put together, perform in and take apart the Haunted Trail, ran the Cakewalk and other games, provided punch service and generally helped out to assure that our kids and grandkids had a FANTASTIC Halloween Party.
